

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

LAW

INTRODUCTION

The teaching team of the Law, Economics and Management Department aims to offer students a wide range of training to enable them, after the degree, to either continue their university career in the master's degree of their choice or to find employment.

The Law Licence offers general legal training and allows students gradual orientation by offering fundamental legal courses that are the essential foundation for a future specialization.

To encourage the acquisition of general knowledge, the Law Licence combines classic courses with non-legal courses and support designed to help graduates find work.

OBJECTIVES

- Acquire basic knowledge of public and private law
- Learn how to use legal reasoning
- Foresee and resolve legal issues
- Professionalization: internship option in years 1, 2 and 3

SUPPORT TOOLS AVAILABLE

- Student mentoring
